Saara Gallin
White Plains, New York

The Tradition Continues: Aishet Chail – Woman of Valor (Prov. 31:15)
Saara Gallin creates abstract panels and works inspired by Jewish themes. She is fascinated by the effect of light and how it interacts with glass. Gallin's exhibition, Sculpting in Glass, is on display at the Yeshiva University Museum at the Center for Jewish History, New York, NY, and is scheduled to run through 14 January 2007. For more information on this exhibition, visit www.yumuseum.org.

Larry Zgoda Studio

Chicago, Illinois

Craig Hall, Graduate School of Social Work, University of Denver, Denver, Colorado
Since 1974, Larry Zgoda has produced unique, original windows, doors, screens and walls of glass in architectural settings as well as a collection of free-standing art pieces. Meticulous workmanship, a focused use of color and the refractive properties of glass as well as a natural attraction to clean, sophisticated design characterize Zgoda's installations. www.larryzgodastudio.com.
