Infinite Horizons

SGAA 2015 Summer Conference Exhibition
Sponsored by Uroboros Glass

WHAT IS AN UROBOROS? The “Uroboros” is an alchemist's term often represented by a dragon or serpent devouring its own tail. The ancient symbol represents an endless cycle of renewal or life everlasting. Our name honors the traditions and lore of medieval alchemists as they struggled to turn non-precious lead into precious gold.

ELIGIBILITY: Open to all stained glass artisans. You do not need to be a Member of the SGAA to enter.

THEME: Simple, elaborate, knotted, or complex, the Uroboros has been depicted in many styles by many cultures throughout the centuries. The artist's assignment for Infinite Horizons is to carry the Uroboros theme into glass. As a panel, jewelry, sculptured three-dimensional art — the artistic platform is wide open.

LIMITATIONS The maximum size for any panel is 4 square feet, with 24" as a maximum for any one side. Three-dimensional designs must be within the size limit of 2' x 2' x 2' with a 30 (thirty) pound weight limit. Larger pieces may not be accepted.

MEDIA: Any use of actual art glass (overlay will not be accepted) in traditional, painted, enameled, beveled, sandblasted, laminated, or new technique is acceptable as long as it is within the size limitations.

FEES: Entry fee is $35; one entry of original work is allowed per individual artist and/or studio. Deadlines: Entries will be accepted through May 1, 2015.

PRIZES: First Place $500; Second Place: $250; Third Place:$125 PLUS! Best of Exhibition: $500 Product prizes will be added as the Exhibition Committee receives acknowledgement.

JUDGING: First, Second, and Third Place will be by selected judges. Best of Exhibition will be by popular vote.

SHIPPING: Uroboros Glass must receive all shipped panels by May 25, 2015. Panels being carried into the conference must be presented for hanging no later than 10:00 am, June 10, 2015. Cost of shipping and insurance to and from the exhibition is the responsibility of the artist. Once registered, the artist will receive shipping and packing instructions.

Please note: Uroboros designs depicted on this page are to illustrate the Uroboros concept only and may not be made from materials allowed for use in the exhibition. Please read exhibition rules for the media allowed.
