The Stained Glass Association of America

“To maintain the highest possible standards for excellence in craftsmanship, integrity and business practices”

from the official bylaws of the Stained Glass Association of America

From the forming of the first craft guilds in the middle ages, those who practice in a given field have banded together, both for the good of their profession and for the good of their patrons.

There are three (3) classes of Accredited Professional Membership:

1. ARTIST/DESIGNER: Applicant will be a professional who designs and/or paints glass for leaded, stained, and/or decorative art glass.

2. CRAFT SUPPLIER/MANUFACTURER: Applicant will be an owner, partner, principal, or appointee of a firm that actively distributes and/or manufactures materials and/or products used in the leaded, stained, and/or decorative art glass craft.

Final Evaluation and Acceptance into the Stained Glass Association of America:

1. The Accredited Professional Member Application will be reviewed by the SGAA Membership Committee. The committee will then accept the application as is or request further materials be presented. Once approved by the Membership Committee, the application will be presented to the SGAA Board for final approval and recommendation for site evaluation.

2. If the Accredited Professional Member Application is not recommended, the applicant will be notified of the factors contributing to this decision and will be given an opportunity to correct any deficiencies and reapply within the review year.

3. Site Evaluation: If the required submissions are deemed satisfactory, the applicant may then be required to submit a fee of $300 for a studio walk-through and site visit to installations at least four years of age or older.

4. Public Notification: After Board approval, the applicant will be published prior to the SGAA Annual Summer Conference. The applicant will be required to attend that Conference to be formally presented to the General Assembly.

5. Annual Dues: The new Accredited Professional Member will be invoiced $500 for annual dues. Application will not be considered final until the fee has been received into the SGAA Headquarters.

Please call the SGAA Headquarters toll free at 800.438.9581 with any questions you may have as you complete this application and prepare the required supporting materials.
